TRACE METALS IN THE ENVIRONMENT

Pitfalls in the Determination of Environmental Trace Metals	3
Atmospheric Trace Metal Studies	17
Trace Metal Concentration Factors in Aquatic Ecosystems	43
Human Trace Metal Burdens: Pathways, Uptake, and Loss	63
Relation of Trace Metals to Human Health Effects	81

PESTICIDES IN THE ENVIRONMENT: RECENTLY DISCOVERED ANALYTICAL PROBLEMS

Introduction	107
Polychlorinated Biphenyls: Their Potential Interference with Pesticide Residue Analyses and Analytical Status	109
Analysis of Pesticides in Air	133
The Significance of Pesticide Contaminants	153
Gas Chromatographic Analysis of Pesticide Residues Containing Phosphorus and/or Sulfur with Flame Photometric Detection and Some Ancillary Techniques for Verifying their Identities	175

THE DETERMINATION OF ANIONS IN WATER

Some Partially-Solved Problems in Anion Analysis	195
Spectrophotometric, Spectrofluorometric, and Atomic Absorption Spectrometric Methods for the Determination of Anions	201
Fluoride Analysis in Seawater and in Other Complex Natural Waters Using an Ion-Selective Electrode -- Techniques, Potentialities, Limitations	229
Analytical Techniques for Nutrient Anions and Other Pertinent Substances in the Water Environment	241

CURRENT TOPICS IN PHARMACEUTICAL ANALYSIS

Analytical Requirements of Automated Pharmaceutical Analysis	275
A Look Ahead Towards Possible Future Analytical Requirements by FDA	277
Data and Information Handling Systems in the Pharmaceutical, Analytical, and Quality Control Environments	285
Panel Discussion
Semantics in Specifications for Drugs	301
What Problems Does One Introduce When Different Criteria for Accept-ability of Unfinished Actives vs. the Formulated Actives Are Utilized?	305

Analytical Methods for Stability Samples--What Should They Tell you?	309
Tests to Monitor the Acceptability of Raw Materials -- Are They Adequate?	313

AUTOMATED ANALYSIS

Automation in Microchemistry: Automatic CHN Analyzer Case History	319
Methodology Problems in Automated Analyses	337
Growth Path for Computers in Automated Analyses	357
