

CONTENTS

I. Occurrence and distribution of seaweeds	1
2. The early kelp industry and iodine production	24
3. The American Pacific coast potash industry, 1910-1930	48
4. Seaweed as animal fodder and manure	63
5. Algae as food for man	86
6. Laver or 'nori' and crragheen or Irish Moss	119
7. Agar-agar	151
8. Algin and alginates	194
9. Minor uses of algae and their products	218
10. Looking for seaweeds. The work's supplies	232
Selected bibliography	262
Author and person index	287
Plant index	293
Subject index	299