

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION	4
STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS	5
Working conditions	5
Medical examinations	5
First Aid and ambulances	6
Appointed Factory Doctors	7
INTRODUCTION OF AN INDUSTRIAL HEALTH SERVICE	8
Staffing	8
Appointment of the doctor	9
Appointment of the nurse	10
SCOPE AND ORGANISATION OF AN INDUSTRIAL HEALTH SERVICE	11
DUTIES OF DOCTOR	11
Advice on working conditions	11
Pre-employment examinations	12
Periodic examination	13
Workers returning after sickness	13
First-aid and emergency treatment	13
Continued treatment	14
Health education	14
Maintenance of records	14
DUTIES OF THE NURSE	15
GENERAL	16
Accommodation	16
Other facilities	16
Works committee	17
Co-operation with outside bodies	17
Cost	17
GROUP SERVICES	17
APPENDIX I	20
Text of the International Labour Recommendation No. 112 concerning occupational health services in places of employment
APPENDIX II	25
Regulations under the Factories Act which require workers To be medically examined by an Appointed Factory Doctor

APPENDIX III
Occupations in which workers are required to unndergo Initial and periodic medical examinations by regulations 41 and 42 of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) (Prescribed Diseases) Regulations 1959
APPENDIX IV	29
First Aid and Ambulances	29
APPENDIX V	33
Bibliography
APPENDIX VI	35
Names and addresses of H.M. Medical Inspectors of Factories
APPENDIX VII	36
Addresses of Industrial Services	