

CONTENTS

I. THERAPEUTICS PAST AND PRESENT
Historical Aspects of Drug Therapy	3
A Perspective on Pharmacology	17
A Clinician's View of Advances in Therapeutics	27
On the Present Limitations of Drug Research	37
II. DRUG EFFECTIVENESS AND SAFETY
The Problem of Drug Efficacy: An Exercise in Dissection	49
Evaluation of Drugs in Experimental Animals	69
Quantitative Effects of Drugs on the Mind	77
On Evaluating Drug Therapy: The Nature of the Evidence	91
The Therapeutic Millennium and Its Price: Adverse Reactions to Drugs	107
III. ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF INDUSTRY AND GOVERNMENT
The Functions of the Pharmaceutical Industry in Our Society	117
Drug Research in Industry	131
The Responsibilities and Problems of Government	141
Practical Aspects of Drug Legislation	149
IV. ECONOMICS AND ADVERTISING
Economic Incentives and Progress in the Drug Industry	163
Drug Costs and the Consumer	179
Advertising and Promotion of Drugs	189
Dissemination of Information on Drugs to the Physician	203
V. SOCIOLOGICAL, LEGAL, AND ETHICAL ASPECTS
Social History of American Drug Legislation	217
Drugs and the Common Law	231
Sociological and Ethnic Aspects of Therapeutics	243
Drug Experiments and the Public Conscience	255
VI. DISCUSSION
A Summary of Comments	269
Members of the Johns Hopkins University Conference on "Drugs in Our Society"	301
Index	305