

Contents

1.	Ferrum corrumpitur. M. Clarke	1
/ 2.	Corrosion protection as seen by an engineer in a large organisation. D. F. Goodman	11
3.	BS 5493: Code of practice for protective coating of iron and steel structures. K. A. Chandler	23
/ 4.	Protection of structural steel work. Some U.S. experience and practice. J. D. Keane	31
5.	DIN standard in respect of corrosion in civil engineering. DIN 55 928 : Protection of steel structures from corrosion by organic and metallic coatings. R. J. Hecker	59
6.	Contract organisation: designer—constructor—supplier—inspector. J. V. Bartlett, D. W. Smith and G. F. Mobsby	69
/ 7.	Cathodic protection in civil engineering. M. D. Allen and D. A. Lewis	79
8.	Weathering steels. M. B. Kilcullen and M. McKenzie	95
9.	Protection of steel by metal coatings. F. C. Porter	107
10.	Quality control of protective coatings. D. A. Bayliss	121
Discussion
	Papers 1, 2 and 3	131
	Papers 4 and 5	143
	Papers 6, 7 and 8	153
	Papers 9 and 10	173