

CONTENTS

|                                                                   | Page                                         |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| Figures                                                           | ix                                           |
| Tables                                                            | xiii                                         |
| Foreword                                                          | xv                                           |
| Acknowledgments                                                   | xvii                                         |
| 1. Introduction                                                   | 3                                            |
|                                                                   | Perspectives on Waste Disposal in Arid Lands |
| 2. Desert Characteristics                                         | 21                                           |
| 3. Site characterization and Selection                            | 57                                           |
| 4. Biotic and Abiotic Processes                                   | 101                                          |
| 5. Risk Assessment Disposal in Arid Lands                         | 147                                          |
| 6. Engineering Perspectives for Near-Surface Disposal             | 161                                          |
| 7. Geochemical Considerations for Disposal Facilities             | 199                                          |
| 8. Engineering Perspectives for Deep Geologic Disposal of Wastes  | 229                                          |
|                                                                   | Case Studies on Waste Disposal in Arid Lands |
| 9. Disposal of Low-Level radioactive and hazardous chemical Waste | 263                                          |
| 10. Mill Tailings Remediation                                     | 281                                          |
| 11. Transuranic Waste Disposal                                    | 303                                          |
| 12. Deserts as Dumps?                                             | 319                                          |
| Notes on Contributors                                             | 323                                          |
| Index                                                             | 327                                          |