

CONTENTS

	Page
Preface	xi
Introduction	1
1. Sources of Lead in the Environment	7
2. The Health Consequences of Lead Exposure	17
3. Populations at Risk	33
4. Key Federal Regulations	43
5. Overview of Lead-based Paint Testing Methods	61
6. Risk Assessment, Part 1 : Purpose and Definitions	87
7. Risk Assessment, Part 2 : Hazard Recognition Procedures	95
8. Risk Assessment, Part 3 : Assessment of Various Housing Types	113
9. Risk Assessment, Part 4 : Evaluating and Reporting of Findings	127
10. Managing Residential Lead-based Paint Hazards : Abatement	143
11. Abatement Case studies	167
12. Removing Lead-based Paint from Steel Structures	173
13. Lead in soil	183
14. Worker Safety and Health Regulations : OSHA Interim Final Rule on Lead Exposure in Construction	197
15. Legal Liability, Loss, Risk Management, and Insurance Considerations for Lead Hazard Control Professionals	209
16. Issues in Lead Poisoning Litigation	221
17. Selecting a Lead-based Paint Abatement Consultant	237
18. Selecting a Lead-based Paint Contractor	247
19. Interim Control of Lead-based Paint Hazards	253
Appendix A : Acronyms	267
Appendix B : Glossary	269
Appendix C : Information Sources	275
Appendix D : Summary of Lead-based Paint Risk Assessment Process	289
Appendix E : Summary Outline of OSHA General Industry Standard	291
Appendix F : OSHA Fact Sheets for Lead Exposure in Construction	299
Appendix G : National Lead Abatement Council Mission Statement	311
Index	313