

CONTENT

	Page
Opening Address	vii
SESSION 1 AGRONOMY AND BREEDING
1. La Selection du palmier a huile a l'I.R.H.O.	3
2. Selection des semences, des plantules et des plants chez le palmier a huile	12
3. The necessity for assisted pollination in areas of low male inflorescence production and its effect on the components of yield of the oil palm (elaeis Guineensis)	17
4. Summary The Role of Potassium in Mineral Nutrition of the Oil Palm	32
5a. Reflections on some Diseases and pests of the Oil Palm	33
5b. Une Ennemie du Palmier a Huile : La Mineuse des Feuilles	39
Summary	45
6. The Oil Palm Groves of Nigeria, and a Rehabilitation Scheme for Them	46
7. The Possibilities of Nucleus Plantations and Processing Factories in Fostering theSound Development of Organized Smallholder Production	53
SESSION 2 TECHNOLOGY
1. Semi-Commercial Scale Palm Oil Processing	63
Discussion	67
2. Factors Responsible for the production of Poor Quality	68
3. Influence of Marketing Boards System and Preliminary Purification on Nigerian Palm Oil for Exports	73
4. The liberation of Fatty Acids in Palm Oil During Storage	79
5. Research on Palm oil in Belgium and the Congo	85
6. Factors influencing the Refining and Bleaching of Palm Oil	96
7. Some Technical Aspects influence the Quality of Palm	105
Discussion	116
SESSION 3 MARKETING AND ORGANIZATION
1. The Market for Oil Palm Products with Particular Reference	119
2. Practical Problems of Selling Palm Oil and Palm Kernels	148
3. Long-term Prospects for Edible and soapmaking Oils and Fats	151
FINAL SESSION GENERAL DISCUSSION
General discussion of papers presented at the conference	155
APPENDIX
Attendance list	163