

CONTENT

	Page
Introduction	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
I Sales Letters	1
Asking prospect for an Appointment	3
To Prospects of a service	4-7
Direct Mail Campaign to Prospective Buyers	8
Cover Letter with Literature Requested by Prospect	9
Offering Prospects a Chance to Order Before Rate Increase	10
Congratulations as an Occasion to Contact a Prospect	11
Selling Advertising Space	12
Pre-Approach Mailing Offering Services	13-14
Pre-Approach Mailing From Manufacturing Company	15
Mailing to Target Group of Prospects	16
Contacting a Prospect Referred by Your client	17
Using a Reference to Introduce yourself to Prospect	18
Inviting Prospect to Trade Show Booth	19
Offering Free Demonstration	20
Offering Free Course at Prospect's premises	21
Inviting Prospects to free Program	22
Recontacting Old Prospects to Sell a Service	23
To Prospect in an Organization That Has Used Your Service	24
Following Up a Prospect's Inquiry	25
Follow Up to sending Out Literature to Prospect	26
Following up an Inquiry About a Specific Product	27
When Prospect Expected to Receive a Telephone Call	28
Confirming an Appointment With Prospect	29
To Prospect After Phone Call and Before First Direct Call	30
Appointment Follow-up	31-32
After an Appointment Where Sale Was Made	33
Following Sales Call Where No Sale Was Made	34
Post-Appointment Critique	35
Following Sales Call to Poor Prospect	36
Follow-up to Guests at a Seminar/Lecture	37
Thanking customer For His Order	38
Selling a Steady Customer Additional Product	39
To Advertisers of Trade Directory at Renewal Time	40-41
Using Acknowledgement of Order to Generate More Sales	42
Asking Customer For Referrals	43
Asking to Use Customer as a Reference	44
Announcing Price Increases to steady Customer	45
Explaining Price Increases to steady Customer	46
When Retailer Complains Price Increases Are Too High	47
Confirmation Letter to Applicant Who Accepts Sales Position	48
Sales Manager Congratulating Salesperson on Month's Sales	49
Motivational Memo to Salesperson	50
Motivational Memo to Disgruntled Sales Representative	51
Sales Manager Reprimanding Salesperson	52
Minor Warning to Salesperson	53
Stronger Motivational Letter : Giving a Push	54
Final Warning to Problem Sales Representative	55
Passing on Personal Information	56
To Sales Force Concerning Activity Reports	57

	To Salespeople About Joint Calls	58
	Forwarding Trade Show Leads to Sales Force	59
	Updating Sales Force on Delays in Introducing New Product	60
	To Sales Force Concerning Dress Code	61
II	Customer Adjustment & Customer Relations Letters	63
	Answering an Inquiry	65
	Answering Request For Information	66
	Responding to Customer's Thank You Letter	67-68
	Responding to a Complaint From a Subscriber	69
	To Customer Demanding Removal From Mailing Lists	70
	National organization Referring client to Local Group	71
	Referring a Customer Elsewhere For Information	72-73
	Turning Problem Info Better Service for Customer	74
	Using Adjustment of Claim as Opportunity to Sell More Product	75
	Rejecting Request to Change a Contract	76
	Denying Free Replacement of Goods Because of Expired Warranty	77
	When Warranty Does Not cover Repair Costs	78
	Saying "No" to Request For Special Order	79
	Saying "No" to a Customer's Request	80
	To Customer Whose Order Cannot Be Filled Due to Company's Error	81
	Refusing Claim When Buyer is to Blame	82
	Adjustment Refusal : Damaged Goods	83
	To customer Causing Problems with His Own Orders	84
	Clearing Up a Misunderstanding	85
	Correcting Balance Statement	86
	Standard Adjustment Letter : Damaged Goods	87
	Standard Adjustment Letter : Losses	88
	Replacing Merchandise at Customer's Request	89
	When the Wrong Order Was Shipped	90
III	Credit & Collection Letters	103
IV	Memos to Staff and Colleagues	129
V	General Business Letters	157