

CONTENT

	Page
Why Study Letter Writing?	1
Why Study Report Writing?	8
 PART ONE HOW A READER REACTS TO A LETTER
1. Appearance : What the Reader Sees	13
2. Style : What the Reader Reads	33
3. Persuasion : What the Reader Does	61
4. Goodwill : How the Reader Feels	77
Letter Cases for Part One	95
 PART TWO HOW TO WIN THE READER'S APPROVAL AND MOTIVATE HIM TO ACTION
5. Neutral and Good-News Messages	117
6. Special Goodwill Letters	209
7. Disappointing Messages	235
8. Persuasive Messages : Requests	307
9. Persuasive Messages : Sales	327
10. Persuasive Messages : Collections	377
 PART THREE THE JOB-FINDING PROCESS
11. Evaluating yourself and Business Firms	425
12. Letters About Employment	437
 PART FOUR WRITING REPORTS
13. Reports : Importance, Nature, and Classification	481
14. Preparing Complete Analytical Reports	487
15. Analysis and Illustration of complete Analytical Reports	529
16. Writing Short Reports	579
 Appendixes
Appendix A The communication Process and Semantic Principles	661
Appendix B Letters and the Law	683
Appendix C Concise Writer's Handbook	689
Appendix D Pointers to Good Dictation	731
 Index	 739