

CONTENT

	Page
PART I THE TECHNOLOGY PRODUCT
1. AN OVERVIEW OF TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER	2
Issues in Technology Transfer	4
Historical Trends	5
2. TECHNOLOGY AS A PRODUCT	8
Intellectual Property	10
PART II TECHNOLOGY MARKETING AND OUT-LICENSING
3. THE MARKETING DECISION	18
Organizational Decisions	19
Product Management Decisions	19
Product Selection Decisions	21
4. MARKET RESEARCH	27
Likely Buyers and Licensees	28
Effective Approaches to Marketing	32
What Is Our Competition, and How De We Compare With it?	36
5. PRODUCT PACKAGING	38
Marketing Packages	40
Transfer Packages	46
6. PROMOTION AND ADVERTISING	53
Print Media	55
Trade Shows and Expositions	58
Personal Contracts	60
7. PRODUCT PRICING	63
Pricing Concepts	65
Forms of Payment	73
Alternate Forms of Payment	75
Alternate Currencies	76
Product Take	78
Equity or Ownership Position	79
8. SALES AND NEGOTIATIONS	80
Initial Response	81
Preparation and Research	84
First Meeting	87
Secrecy Issues	89
Negotiating Approaches	90
Third Party Sales Efforts	92
9. THE LICENSING AGREEMENT	95
The Grant	97
Supporting Services	99
Confidentiality	101
Payments and Fees	104
Tax Considerations	106

Patent Issues	109
Guarantees	111
Improvements and Grantbacks	113
Records	115
Assignment	115
Termination	115
Appendix Material	116
10. LICENSING SUPPORT ACTIVITIES	117
Operational Support	119
Administrative Support	124
PART III
TECHNOLOGY ACQUISITION AND IN-LICENSING
11. TECHNOLOGY ACQUISITION	130
Support for a New Venture	131
Increased Competitiveness in Existing Operations	132
More Effective Allocation of limited Research Resources	132
To Supplement Captive Technology	133
For Sublicensing, Rather Than Captive Use	133
For Further Development and New Applications (Value-Added)	134
To Implement a Business Acquisition	135
Problems in Technology Acquisition	136
12. TECHNOLOGY SEARCH	139
Technology Product Characteristics	141
Definition of Critical Issues	141
Desired Commercial Features	142
Search Types and Resources	143
13. TECHNOLOGY EVALUATION	152
Technological Considerations	153
Economic and Commercial Considerations	154
Supplier Background and Experience	157
Technology Transfer Capability	158
14. MANAGING THE TRANSFER	160
Technology Transfer Management in the License Agreement	161
Technology Transfer Management After the Agreement	165
PART IV
APPENDIX
SECTION 1. PATENT LAWS FOR VARIOUS COUNTRIES	169
SECTION 2. EXPORT REGULATIONS AND TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER	203
SECTION 3. TECHNOLOGY SEARCH – A SCREENING APPROACH	262