

CONTENT

	Page
Preface	v
PART 1
A Management and Personnel Administration	3
1. Managers and Their Personnel Concepts	5
2. Personnel Administration and the Line Organization	29
3. Organization Planning and Management Development	52
4. Managing and Working in a Changing World	81
B The Individual in the Organization	113
5. Interpersonal Communication	116
6. Inner Motivation, Individual Goals, and Teamwork	147
7. A New Role for the First-level Supervisor	177
8. Employees and Labor Organizations	212
C Diagnosing Organizational Health	232
9. Situational Thinking	236
10. Interviewing	265
11. Indicators of Employee Morale	284
12. Labor Turnover and Internal Mobility	304
13. Complaints and Grievances	322
D Developing Human Resources : A Personnel Policy system	341
14. Job Description and Analysis	344
15. Recruitment, Selection, and Placement	371
16. Training and Performance Appraisal	395
17. Promotions, Transfers, and Separations	419
18. Constructive Discipline	440
19. Managing Changes in Jobs and Work Schedules	464
E Providing Pay and Services	488
20. Wage and Salary Policies and Administration	491
21. Incentive Systems of Payment	519
22. Sharing the Gains from Higher Productivity	538
23. Employee Benefits and Services	568
24. Employee Health and Safety	591
F Summary	613
25. The Human Responsibilities of Modern Managers	617
PART 2 CASE ILLUSTRATIONS
Introduction A Word about Cases and Case Method	641
Case 1 The Old-line Foreman	655
Case 2 Who Owns the Improved Tool?	668
Case 3 Dissatisfactions of an Expatriate Engineer	679
Case 4 The Girl and the Computer	686
Case 5 A "Personal" Complaint	694
Case 6 Conflict of Interest?	705
Case 7 The Good-neighbor Policy	712
Case 8 A Need for Policy-Centered Thinking	719
Case 9 The "Outside" Inspectors	728

Case 10	The Rejected Applicant for Employment (New Engineer)	741
Case 11	Need for Induction and Training (Learner Spinners)	747
Case 12	An Engineer and a Machinist (Needs for Orientation and Explanation)	752
Case 13	Factors in Promotion Policy (Selection of a Head Lift-truck Operator)	758
Case 14	Discharge for "Proper Cause"? (Shop Steward Harris)	771
Case 15	Discharge for "Insubordination" (Irene Mason)	779
Case 16	Two Approaches to Introducing Job Changes (Caledonia Woolen Mills)	793
Case 17	Difficulties Connected with Work Scheduling	804
Case 18	A Dispute over Rates on Three Jobs (Wilshire Shoe Company)	818
Case 19	Union-Management Cooperation for Security and Productivity (The Pacific Coast Maritime Agreement)	825
Case 20	An Injury on the Job	850
	Name Index	859
	Subject Index	867