

CONTENT

	Page
Introduction	xi
I The Background	1
History	1
The Ideal Package	4
Shirt Package	5
Packaging Management	9
Cost of Packaging and Other Vital considerations	12
Social Aspects of Packaging	17
Demographics in Packaging	22
II Moving the Eye Moves the Hand	27
Goals of Package Designer	35
Naming a Product	40
New Future markets	46
Package Design Examples	46
III Where the Action is – the Supermarket	51
How It All Started	52
The urban Supermarket	54
The Suburban Supermarket	57
Trends in Supermarkets as they Affect Packaging	58
Frozen-Food Department	59
Generic Labeling	59
Larger Stores	63
Bagging Trends	64
Universal Product Code	65
New Products Sold	65
IV Creating with Cartons and Containers	67
The building Blocks	68
Paper	68
Paperboard	72
Folding Cartons	74
Rigid (Set-Up)Boxes	80
Spiral-Wound Containers	80
Corrugated Containers	81
V Fiddling with Films	85
Modern Packaging Begins	86
The Polymers Arrive	88
Liners, Wraps and Overwraps	100
Bags, Envelopes and Pouches	104
VI Aluminum Enters the Scene	111
Foil types	113
Foil containers	115
Designing with Aluminum	116
Aluminum Properties	119
The “Super Barrier”	121

VII	Napoleon Offers a Prize	125
	Overview of Cans – Types and Forms	127
	Tin-Free Steel Cans	129
	Aluminum Cans	130
	Composite Cans	131
	The “Dutch Cleanser” Case – A Marketing Story	132
	Rigid Container Trends	132
	The Beer Can Story	133
VIII	The Glitter of Glass vs the Promise of Plastics	143
	Toward a package	145
	Manufacture	146
	Types of Glass	147
	Surface Treatment	148
	The Plastic Bottle	149
IX	Packages of the Future	153
	Food in Tubes	153
	Tubes Abroad	155
	U.S. Developments	156
	Tube Materials	157
	Stand-Up Pouch	160
	Aseptic Milk	161
	The Retort Pouch	163
X	Packaging Under Siege	167
	Consumer Protection Regulations	167
	1962 New Drug Amendment	173
	Fair Packaging and Labeling Act (FPLA) – 1966	180
	Consumer Product Safety	186
	The Bottle Bills – Worldwide	191
	Ozone-Layer controversy	195