

CONTENT

	Page
PART ONE : MANAGING AND MAKING DECISIONS
1. American Business and Management	3
2. Decision Making – Management’s Number One Job	19
3. Computers and Decision Making	28
4. Operations Research Linear Programming, and Break-even Analysis – Aids to Decision Making	42
PART TWO : ORGANIZING THE ENTREPRISE
5. Managerial Organization	65
6. Developing an Organization	85
PART THREE : DEVELOPING THE PRODUCT
7. Research and Product Development	101
8. Product Development Principles	117
PART FOUR : MANAGING THE FACILITIES OF PRODUCTION
9. Planning and locating the Building	135
PART FOUR : MANAGING THE FACILITIES OF PRODUCTION
10. Layout and Work Environment	156
11. Machine Tools and Processes	185
12. Materials Handling	207
13. Maintenance of Machinery	224
14. Equipment Purchasing and Replacement Policy	237
PART FIVE : MANAGING EMPLOYEES
15. Human Relations	265
16. Personnel Management	279
17. Unions and Management	292
18. Employee Safety and Health	305
PART SIX : DETERMINING EMPLOYEES’ WORK AND WAGES
19. Studying Employees’ Work Methods	321
20. Simplifying Employees’ Work Methods	348
21. Measuring Employees’ Production	368
22. Determining Appropriate Wages	391
23. Selecting a Wage Payment Plan	407
PART SEVEN : CONTROLLING PRODUCT QUALITY AND COST
24. Procuring Materials	425
25. Inspecting Materials	439
26. Controlling Product Quality Through Statistical Quality Control	453
27. Controlling Inventories	473
28. Controlling Production	495
29. Budgeting for Overall Control	517
30. PERT : A New Control Technique	528
PART EIGHT : CASES
	541