

CONTENTS

Section 1 Principles of contact (impression) printing processes	1
1. Principles of contact (impression) printing processes	3
Section II. Principles of noncontact printing	49
2. Principles of noncontact printing	51
Section III. Groundwood paper grades	73
3. Groundwood paper grades	75
Section IV Coated grades and commercial printing	115
4. Coated grades commercial papers	117
5. Papers for office copying	129
6. Map papers	135
Section V Labels and packaging papers	137
7. Packaging papers	138
8. Box wrap papers	143
9. Label papers	147
10. Noncellulose papers	153
Section VI book publishing papers	157
11. Book publishing papers	159
Section VII Business and writing papers	181
12. Safety papers	183
13. Stamp papers	189
14. MICR / OCR papers	195
15. Writing , ledger and bond papers	203
16. Business form papers	207
17. Uncoated paper for copying machines	213
Section VIII Paperboard	221
18. Paperboard	221
Section IX Performance characteristics of paper	231
19. Performance characteristics of paper	233
Section X Testing paper and board for printing	267
20. Tests for gravure printing	273
21. Tests for letterpress printing	281
22. Tests for offset printing	295
Section XI Future trends	305
23. Printing developments and the papermaker	307
24. Di – litho	325
25. The significance of twin wire formed paper	333

26. Future end – use requirements	341
27. Economics and future trends	347
28. Future trends in printing processes	365
Index	377