

CONTENTS

I FOREIGN LANGUAGE BROADCASTS OVER LOCAL AMERICAN STATIONS

Introduction	3
Program Content	8
Appeals	35
Summary and Interpretation	57

II. THE POPULAR MUSIC INDUSTRY

General Background	65
Making and Publishing Popular Songs	78
Exploitation	91

III THE RADIO SYMPHONY

The Problem; characteristics of the Symphony	110
--	-----

IV. INVITATION TO MUSIC

The problem of serious music broadcasting	140
Radio Creates a new music Listener	147
The Function of the Radio	162
The Radio Listener's Approach to music	173

V. RADIO AND THE PRESS AMONG YOUNG PEOPLE

Introduction	189
Where do young People get most of their news	192
Sumption	201
What Are the factors which Influence Knowledge of the news	215
Summary	222
A. Introduction	224
B. Radio and the rural individual	235
C. Control of Rural Opinion and Action via Radio	257
D. Some Social Effects of the Radio	273
Organized social intercourse	281
Deliberateness of decisions and the social effects of Radio	285
The Radio and Church Attendance	286
E. Conclusion	293
Appendix	295
Index	329