

CONTENTS

I. Introduction	9
II. Method of Presentation	14
2.1 Preparing the Material	14
2.2 Outlines of Typical Papers	16
2.3 Sequences	20
2.4 Relationships	22
2.5 Writing the First Draft	25
III. Choice of Words	27
3.1 Revising the First Draft	27
3.2 What is Good, Literary English	28
3.3 Words in General	30
3.4 Technical Terms	34
3.5 Some Notes on composition	36
IV. Organization	42
4.1 Amendments to the Revised Draft	42
4.2 The Sentence	43
4.3 Paragraphs and sections	46
4.4 Aids to Reference	48
V. The preparation of Manuscripts	53
5.1 Recommendations of Various Bodies	53
5.2 Punctuation and Allied Refinements	54
5.3 Symbols and Numerals	57
5.4 Layout	63
5.5 The Correction and Dispatch of Manuscripts	65
VI. The Art of Sub-Editing	68
6.1 Sub-Editing-and Technical Editors-Defined	68
6.2 The Style of the house	69
6.3 method of Sub-Editing, with Notes on Copyringth and Libel	71
6.4 Casting off	75
6.5 Making up	78
6.6 The Author's Proof	79
VII. Illustrations	82
7.1 The Function of Illustrations	82
7.2 Methods of Reproduction	83
7.3 General Requirements	85
7.4 Drawings	88
7.5 Photographs	88

7.6 The Author's Pulls: the Correction of Blocks	92
Bibliography	94
Appendix A Psychological Principles	97
B Editing standards	108
Index	113