

Index

- agriculture 127, 220–225, 228, 243–245, 316–320
 agrochemical production 243–244 arable farming 244
 architecture 124, 198–199 armed conflict 107–108 artificial light 142
 Asian region 111–113
 attitudes 62–63, 97, 166–170, 173–174, 206–207, 252
 automobile industry 51
 see also cars
 autonomous power generation attitudes to 168–169, 173–174
 cogeneration 196
 energy statistics 142–143 technology potential 130–131, 174–181, 199–201, 204
 aviation 258, 297–300

 batteries 175–176, 185–187, 193
 biodiversity 207–208, 218–219
 biogas xv, 66, 70, 130, 157, 184, 195, 205, 209, 222, 245, 272, 275, 319
 biological energy regulation strategies 198
 biolubricants 215–217
 biomass
 fossil fuel contrast 65–66, 140–141
 gasification 70, 195, 209
 hybrid systems 184
 production 221–223
 storage 192, 194–195
 supply chains 69–73
 terminology 8
 see also biogas
 biotechnology 11–12, 225–230
 bourgeoisie 15–17
 BP Solar 145
 brown coal see lignite buildings 197–199, 238–240

 capacity 182–184, 242
 carbon dioxide levels 192 cars 188–189, 194, 196–197, 215, 259 cartels 44, 49–61
 Central Asia 109
 centralization
 attitudes to 166, 167
 developing countries 130–131
 power generation 82–84
 productivity 155–156
 urbanization 17, 123
 certification systems 268 chemical industry
 gene-oriented biotechnology 227
 Germany 218
 renewable resources 208–209, 279 waste products 223
 chemicals, gas–oil complex 51–52
 China 111, 112
 CHP see combined heat and power plants cities 121–122, 291–292 civilization 16, 324 coal 40, 100–101
 cogeneration 191, 196, 239–240, 272 colours 216
 combined heat and power plants
 (CHP) 191
 commodities markets 307
 compatibility 172, 173
 compensatory measures xiii–xiv competition
 electricity prices 28, 267–268, 282–283
 global xvi, 12–14, green suppliers 265–272
 resource exhaustion 113–115

- complementary technologies 179, 202
- compressed air 188–189
- concentration
 - business 84–85
 - industrial 88, 251
 - power generation 82–84
- conferences x–xi, 309
- conflicts
 - armed 107–108
 - energy industries 280–281
 - grid feed-in laws 260–265
 - resources 9, 93–94, 115, 323
- conglomerates 18–19, 44–49
- consensus x, xii–xiii, 19, 311
- consumption
 - Asian region 111–113
 - electricity statistics 142
 - fossil fuels 94–97, 100, 103
 - global energy 6
 - predictions 105
 - stand-by power 180–181
- contracting models, energy 233–234
- conversion processes 192–195
- corporations 18–19, 117
- cost–benefit analysis 157–158, 231–232
- costs
 - agricultural energy 243–245
 - avoiding 237–245
 - calculation inadequacies 149
 - comparisons 77, 78, 214–215, 233–237
 - disasters 322
 - environmental 93
 - flexibility 234
 - grid feed-in laws 261–262
 - labour 209–210
 - market demand 224
 - megacities 126–127
 - prices contrast 154
 - solar 238–240, 240–243
 - transition 231–233
 - see also* prices
- creative destruction 277
- crisis 103, 324
- cross-sectoral synergy 56–57, 49–56, 318–319
- crude oil 38–39, 105
- decentralization
 - attitudes to 166–170
 - costs 241–242
 - energy storage 196
 - freight subsidies 300–301
 - municipal self-sufficiency 269–276
 - re-regionalization 84–87
 - renewable energy 200
- defence expenditure 114–115
- deforestation 207–208
- demand 50–51, 103–105
- denial 94–97, 104–105, 315–316
- dependency
 - hypercentralized generation 84
 - international 16
 - metal ores 44
 - resource 2–5, 7, 9–12, 33, 133–136
- developing countries 91–92, 120, 292–296
- development
 - agriculture 317–320
 - environment links 21–25, 33
 - fossil fuels 135–136
 - pressures 55
 - resource bases 2–5
 - subsidies 150
- direct generation 74–75
- disasters, environmental 247–248, 322
- disorientation 315–316
- displacement 18
- distribution grids 46–47, 56–57, 59, 77–78, 173
- division of labour 324–325
- domestic
 - commodities markets 307
 - electricity losses 177–178
 - level generation costs 242–243
 - production 292–293
- eco-taxation 256–257
- efficiency 156–159, 233
- electricity
 - concentration 46–49
 - consumption 96, 142
 - cross-sectoral expansion 56–57
 - energy–industrial combine 53–56
 - generation costs 240–241
 - independent markets 265–269

- industry 41–42, 259–267
 - operators 235–236
 - prices 28, 267–268, 282–283
 - renewable resources 73–74
 - storage plants 185
 - subsidies 151–152
 - supply chains 41–42
- electrochemical accumulators 185, 186–187, 193
- electrodynamic storage 189–190, 193
- electrolysis 75–76, 190
- electromechanical storage 188–189, 193
- electrostatic storage 187, 193
- emissions ix–x, 295
- employment
 - agriculture 316, 318–319
 - economic development 21
 - megacities 125–128
 - technology 320–321
 - transition 288–290
 - see also* labour; work
- energy–industrial combine 53–56
- energy–minerals complex 52
- environmental aspects
 - disasters 247–248
 - economic development links 21–25, 34
 - efficiency 156–158
 - fossil fuel costs 93
 - globalization 12–13, 117–118
 - standards 302–304
 - tackling issues 206–207
- equality 31–32, 34, 291
- equity 322
- estimates 98–101, 105, 161–162
 - see also* forecasts; predictions
- exemption 257–258, 283, 297–301
- exhaustion of resources 7, 103–105, 314, 324
- exports 46, 134
- extraction processes 38–44, 45, 99–101, 106–107
- farming subsidies 319
- fly-wheels 188
- food industry 72, 299, 314–315
- forecasts 94–97, 143–148
 - see also* estimates; predictions
- free trade 302, 306
- freight subsidies 299–300
- fuel 96, 194, 196–197
- fuel cells xv, 163, 193, 194–197, 204, 273, 289
- fuel duty exemption 297–298, 300
- fuel-efficient vehicles 51
- functional separation 266–267, 282
- gas see natural gas
- gas–chemicals–oil complex 51–52
- gene patents 319–320
- generation processes
 - comparisons 77–78, 78–81, 79
 - electricity 73–74
 - local 74–75, 78, 82
 - resource exhaustion 7
 - technologies 14–15, 63–66
- GENESIS see Global Energy Network Equipped with Solar Cells and International Superconductor Grids
- genetic engineering 225–230
- geographical location 36, 43, 65, 66–68, 263–264, 285–286
- geopolitics 105–115
- Germany 64, 218, 298
- global capital transfers (Tobin) tax 301
- Global Energy Network Equipped with Solar Cells and International Superconductor Grids (GENESIS) 83
- global governance 116
- globalization
 - big business 15–19
 - concept development 12–13
 - cutting loose from 19–21
 - economic 12–14, 323
 - environmental damage 117–118
 - regionalization 285
 - resource dependence 9–10, 33
 - supply chains 37–44
- governments x–xi, 305–306, 309
- green electricity 265–272
- green taxation schemes 256–259
- grid feed-in laws 260–265
- heating systems 141–142, 239–240

- hidden subsidies 150–151
- horizontal network integration 58
- humanitarian intervention
 - 108–109
- hybrid systems 183–184
- hydrocarbons 39, 42, 50, 102, 208, 209–214, 243, 245, 279, 284
- hydrogen 63, 65, 75–76, 84, 88, 163, 190–191, 193, 194–195, 273, 275
- hydropower 6, 8, 184, 47, 53, 63, 66, 68, 76, 82–83, 88, 130–133, 140, 144, 161, 204, 242, 251–252, 267, 272, 273, 289
- hybrid systems 184
- IEA see International Energy Agency
- ILO see International Labour Organization
- implementation ix, 292–296
- import revenues 134–136
- incentives 253–255
 - see also* subsidies; taxation
- independent electricity markets 265–269
- independent solar technology see autonomous power generation
- India 111, 112
- indigenous resources 16
- individualization 168
- Industrial Revolution 17–18, 313
- industrialization 294–295
- industry
 - concentration 44–56, 88, 251
 - development 22–23, 91–92
 - electricity from renewable resources 73–74
 - energy combine 53–56
 - heightened concentration 251
 - policy instruments xi–xii
 - processing 215–218, 243, 245
 - resource supply chains 42–44
 - transition to renewable energy 276–280
- inefficiency 158–159
- installation rebates 258
- integration 58, 72, 249–250, 252, 274, 275
- international aspects
 - agreements xiii, xvii 303, 309–310
 - conferences x–xi, xiv, 309
 - laws 304–305, 308–309, 310
- International Energy Agency (IEA) 144
- International Labour Organization (ILO) treaties 303–304
- internationalization 59
- intervention, humanitarian 108–109
- Japan 179
- jobs see employment
- joint implementation 295, 296
- knowledge 164–166
- labour 209–210, 321–322, 324–325
 - see also* employment
- land 220–221, 241
- large-scale power plants 293–294
- legislation 264–265
- liberalization 48–49, 248–249
- lignite 40, 100–101
- lithium batteries 187
- localized energy systems 130–131, 270, 271
- long-distance power cables 273
- long-term cashflow analysis 237
- lubricants 215–217
- MAI see Multinational Agreement on Investment
- manufacturing processes 7, 289–290
- marginalization of solutions 163
- markets
 - analysis 171
 - commodities 307
 - demand and costs 224
 - global to regional 286
 - liberalization 248–249
 - prices 154, 214–215
- medicine 217
- megacities 121–125, 125–128
- mercenary companies 108
- metal ores 44
- micro-power plants 155–152, 195–201, 241–242
- microelectronic revolution xv

- migration 120, 128–129
- minerals
 - developing countries 135–136
 - energy complex 52
 - replacement by solar resources 219–220
 - reserves 6–7, 43, 102
 - supply chains 42–44
- minimum price legislation 264–265
- monocultures 221–222, 224
- monopolization
 - food-processing industry 72
 - liberalization 248–249
 - renewable energy plants 85, 88
 - seed 228–229
 - subsidies 151–152
- Multinational Agreement on Investment (MAI) 117
- municipal self-sufficiency 269–276
- national grids see distribution grids
- national statistics 139
- NATO see North Atlantic Treaty Organization
- natural feedback loops 24–25
- natural gas 39, 99–100, 105
- natural-fibre-reinforced plastic 215, 217
- negotiation-based approaches x, xii–xiii, xiv, xvii
- networks 57–61, 77–78, 203–204, 271, 274–275
- non-conventional oil reserves 99–100
- non-renewable resources 102
- North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) 110–111
- northern Europe 65
- nuclear industry
 - development 101, 165
 - subsidies 151, 283
 - supply chains 41
 - weapons and resource interests 113–114
- oil 51–52, 99–100, 145–146
 - see also* crude oil
- oil-petrochemicals complex 50–51
- on-site biomass cogeneration plants 239–240
- on-site generation 75, 78
- operators 235–236
- patents, gene 228–229, 230, 319–320
- peak-load electricity 262
- pest-resistant plants 227
- petrochemicals 50–51, 211–218
- photovoltaics (PV) see solar panels
- planning 124, 197–199
- plastic 215, 217
- political aspects
 - genetic engineering 229, 230
 - industrial concentration 47
 - policy instruments xi–xii
 - resource interests 105–115
 - transition 250, 313
- polycultures 221
- polyurethane production 210–211
- population 104, 128–129
- power
 - concentration of 56–61
 - energy industry 266–267, 276–277
 - generation technologies 14–15
 - large-scale plants 293–294
 - networks 203–204
- precursor materials 214
- predictions 94–97
 - see also* estimates; forecasts
- prices
 - comparisons 154, 214–215
 - cutting 27–28, 266, 282–283
 - forecasts 95
 - see also* costs
- primacy of the market 32, 34
- primary economy 316–320
- primary energy 140
- product of labour 321–322
- production
 - biomass 66
 - domestic 292–293
 - proximity 70, 71, 78, 130–131
 - renewable energy 95–96
- productivity
 - biological resources 209–218
 - centralization 155–156
 - energy contracting model 233–234
 - goals 8–9
 - prices 153

- renewable energy 81–82
- profitability 233–237
- prospecting 45
- protectionism 286, 302
- proximity of production 70, 71, 78, 130–131
- PV see photovoltaics
- quota systems 263–264
- raw materials
 - biodiversity 218–219
 - comparisons 214, 216, 225
 - developing countries 293
 - monocultures 221–222, 224
 - plant resources 225
- rebates 258
- rechargeable batteries 175–176, 177
- recycling 223
- redox batteries 186–187
- refining processes 38–44
- reforestation 207–208
- regionalization 285–311
- Reichstag building, Berlin 239
- relative energy density 160–161
- replacement of fossil fuels 148, 166–170, 218–220
 - see also* transition
- research and development subsidies 150
- reserves
 - capacity 182–184
 - fossil 97–101, 105
 - mineral ores 102
- resources
 - access to 9
 - biological 207–209
 - dependency and wealth contrast 133–136
 - economic development 2–5
 - exhaustion 7, 103–105, 314, 324
 - indigenous 16
 - national interests 106–109
 - security 107–108, 118–119
 - solar 8, 30–31, 62–89
 - supply chains 42–44
- responsibility 6, 168–169
- revenue, import and export 134
- running costs 237
- SADC see South African Development Community
- scientific credibility xii, 146
- seasonal variations 141–142, 191
- security
 - resource 107–108, 118–119, 319
- seed supplies 228–229, 319
- self-sufficiency 127–128, 239, 243, 269–276
- settlement patterns 120–123
- Shell forecast study 144–145
- shipping industry 258, 299–300
- short-term calculations of cost 237–238
- social context
 - global governance 117–118
 - globalization 19–21
 - information 202–203
 - organization 120–123
 - standards 302–304
 - stratification 126
 - technological development 164–166
- solar heating 8, 68, 85, 141–142, 191–194, 239
 - see also* thermal storage
- Solar Manifesto 26–27
- solar panels 74–75, 176–177, 178, 180–181, 238
- solar powered electrolysis 190
- solar resources, terminology 8
- solar thermal power 68, 74, 76, 78, 82, 88, 161, 162, 190
- sources of solar energy 8
- South African Development Community (SADC) 133
- stand-alone systems 174–181
- stand-by power 177–178, 180–181
- standards, social and environmental 302–304, 307
- statistical inadequacy 139–143
- steam engine 2, 14–15, 24, 164, 172
- storage of energy 182–195, 196, 199–201, 272
- stranded investments 152
- subsidiary companies 145–146, 267–268
- subsidies 72, 149–153, 254–255, 297–301, 319

- sunlight 8, 64–65, 68, 74, 80, 81,
 83–85, 140, 158, 176, 194, 197, 234
see also photovoltaics; solar panels supercapacitors 187
 suppliers 235, 269–276
 supply chains
 analysis 35–36
 comparisons 29–30, 34, 35–36, 77–78, 79
 energy–industrial combine 54
 fossil 37–62, 120–136
 solar xiv–xv, 66–82
 synthetic goods 208–209, 215

 taxation 51, 154, 256–259, 290–291, 297–301
 technology
 accessibility 324–325 conventional and renewable contrast 147
 developments xv–xvi, 2–4, 11, 164–166, 171–172
 employment 320–321
 fossil energy 137
 marginalization 163 market rules 310
 renewable energy sources 63–66, 204–205, 289–290
 storage 185–195
 telecommunications 58–59
 thermal storage 191, 193
 tidal power 63, 74, 82
 Tobin see global capital transfers tax trade barriers 287, 305
 emissions permits 295–296 flows 296–301
 free 302, 306
 transition
 awareness and action 312–313 biological resources 207–209
 costs 231
 current status 247–250
 economic 33
 independent agents 252–253 industry transformations 276–280 policies 250
 regionalization 288–292
 see also replacement transmission charges 267, 268–269
 transnational corporations 117 transport industry 296–297

 universal provision 31–32, 34 uranium reserves 101 urban diversity 123–125 farming 127
 planning 124, 197–199
 urbanization 16–17, 104, 120,
 121–122, 128–136
 USSR 17–18, 109

 vegetable oil 51, 65, 156, 184, 195, 215, 217, 218, 239, 245, 272
 supply chains 70
 vertical network integration 58, 72

 waste 223

 water power see hydropower; tidal power; wave power water reserves 113, 314 wave power 8, 63, 68, 85
 wind power xvi, 27, 64, 68, 75, 80, 82, 160, 182–184, 194, 195,
 205, 240, 241, 264
 hybrid systems 184
 wind turbines xv, 47, 64, 75, 78, 80, 85–87, 130, 142, 146,
 161–162, 163, 185, 189, 204, 241, 273, 278, 280, 289
 windfarms 47, 53, 63, 86, 146, 157, 182, 184, 260, 262, 273
 windmills 142 work 320–323
 see also employment; labour
 World Bank 131–132
 World Trade Organization (WTO)
 xv, 13, 303–304
 WTO see World Trade Organization

 yields 228, 244